

Broadcaster / Sponsorship Sales / Game Day Ops

The Northeast Generals of the NAHL, located in Canton, MA, are looking for a new play by play announcer that can also work a few other roles.

The position is full time. The candidate must have experience in broadcasting. This position also comes with a role in selling corporate sponsorships for both the broadcast and the rink.

Additionally the candidate will be responsible for pre game and in game marketing. Introductions, fan and player experience etc.

The candidate will be given the resources to be successful and will have access to the staff and players for interviews, promotional visits and community relationship building!

Interested parties can send a resume, audio/video tape and salary requirements to coach@northeastgenerals.com