

Danbury Hat Tricks – FPHL Head Coach Opportunity

The Danbury Hat Tricks are seeking a Head Coach for our FPHL team. This is a full-time, salaried position for a motivated leader with a strong hockey background who is ready to take on a high-responsibility coaching role with one of the premier teams in the Federal Prospects Hockey League.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Plan and execute team practices, skill development sessions, and in-game strategies throughout the season
- Recruit high-level professional athletes
- Organize and manage team travel logistics
- Conduct video analysis and game breakdowns to enhance team performance
- Oversee daily program administration and other relevant duties

Why Danbury?

The Hat Tricks are a championship-caliber organization, having won the 2022–23 FPHL Championship, a Regular Season Championship, and Division Titles. Many of our players and coaches have advanced to higher levels such as the SPHL and ECHL. This role is ideal for an aspiring coach looking to develop within a competitive and professional environment.

Qualifications:

- Collegiate or professional playing/coaching experience preferred
- Strong communication skills and cultural competence required
- Must be self-motivated and passionate about recruiting, teaching, and developing talent
- Experience using video analysis and data-driven insights to improve performance
- Familiarity with managing team travel and operational logistics

To Apply:

Please submit your resume and cover letter to:

- Herm Sorcher – Herm@danburyhattricks.com

- Bill McCreary – bmccreary1582@gmail.com